Overview

Lissa Laffey focuses her practice on general liability. She has experience in all phases of litigation and represents clients in automobile and pedestrian cases, premises liability, construction defect, industrial accidents, malpractice litigation, Child Victims' Act claims, and other complex litigation.

Lissa has volunteered with AIDS Walk Los Angeles, Noah's Bark (an animal rescue group), and the Beverly Hills Free Legal Clinic. She became a "big sister" with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles in 2007 and still maintains a special relationship with her "little sister," who is now in college. She lives in West Hollywood, where she likes to attend musicals, movies and all things fun and interesting with her friends, family, and cat Cleopatra.
